Personality Report

Introducing Yourself To You –

Each Personality Profile includes a personal birth chart which is a symbolic map of the solar system as seen from the earth at the time and place of birth.

Report details your personality in 12 sections;

Your self identity, personal life, vitality and self expression.

Habits, attitudes, emotions and specific needs.

Mentality and your communication skills.

Capacity for love and what you value most.

Driving force, stamina and assertiveness.

Awareness, optimism and understanding.

Challenges, setbacks and insecurities.

Independence, individuality.

Idealism, uncertainties.

Forces of change, secrets, powerful obsessions.

Also includes an introduction to how astrology works.

The chartwheel comprises of three basic factors

(1) The aspects (angles) formed between the Sun, Moon and planets, as seen from the earth. These are indicated by the lines on the birth chart. The five major aspects (Conjunctions/Trines/Sextiles/Squares/Oppositions ) are interpreted.

(2) Each planet is located in a particular sign of the zodiac. The symbols for each sign are placed around the edge of the chart, Aries, Taurus, Gemini, Cancer, Leo, Virgo, Libra, Scorpio, Sagittarius, Capricorn, Aquarius and Pisces. All the planets in each sign are interpreted.

(3) Each planet is also located in a particular house in the chart. These are indicated by the twelve sections of the chart. All the planets in each house of the horoscope are interpreted.

This horoscope symbolizes and sheds light on - your purpose, your needs, your talents, your doubts, your sensitive spots, your destiny and more;

The birth chart is therefore a unique blueprint of your personality, everyone is different. At birth, the chart represents a set of potentials, it describes the "form" of your personality.

Future Forecast

This report module produces Monthly and Yearly Forecasts based on 'long term, and short term daily transits' or the movement of the planets.

Year Forecast Reports - uses long term transits tracking the movement of the planets as follows:

Jupiter shows you times of opportunity and expansion in your life.
Saturn shows major times of maturity and growth as well as significant challenges.
Uranus shows us the possibilities of individualism and unexpected events.
Neptune highlights periods of creativity and imagination.
Pluto indicates periods of transformation in our lives and our outlook.

These transits can affect your birth chart for up to two to three months, and due to astrological cycles will occasionally recur during the year.

Monthly Forecast reports - uses both long term transits above and short term daily transits that usually only last a day or two - occasionally up to one week, tracking the movement of the planets as follows:

Sun highlights your true will and sense of purpose
Mercury shows the way we interact at certain times with others
Venus shows when what we love and value most is apparent
Mars shows when and how we assert ourselves

Transits - understanding the method used in the reports

The planets as symbolized in your birth/natal chart remain fixed throughout your life, but the planets still continue to move round in their orbit of the zodiac. Each planet has its own characteristic cycle, for example, Jupiter takes twelve years to complete one full cycle, Saturn takes 28 to 30 years.

During their orbit each planet passes through the houses of your birth chart, and make angles or aspects to the natal planets of the birth chart, bringing about experiences that are related to the nature of the transiting planet, the house it is passing through and the natal planet being aspected.

The technique of transits, used in this report, therefore allows the timing of specific experiences, from times of opportunity to major life crises. This helps you understand why you have experienced certain things in the past, the reasons for your present experiences, and what you may experience in the future. Transits predict the specific type of experience you will have at a certain given time.

Future Forecasts should be used as a guide to help individuals to take control of their lives.

Monthly and Yearly reports 15 - 20 pages

Life Clock

This report featuring "Progressed aspects" of a Personal Horoscope covers the future and its possible outcomes dealing with 'long term' influences, describing the themes and trends of the next few years, usually for a minimum of two years.

'Progressions' shown in Life Clock indicate internal changes that you are going through over an extended period. In other words they describe how you are developing at a specific time.

Your personal growth. Interpretations of your Progressed planets

Personality – your progressed Ascendant

Public life - your progressed Midheaven

Creative drive and personal development - your progressed Sun

Mental development - your progressed Mercury

Happiness love and money - your progressed Venus

Motivation drive and energy - your progressed Mars

Feelings - Daily life - your progressed Moon

There could be either a busy period for you with many progressed planet making an aspect to your birth chart or just a few.

Within this report the section that deals with your 'Progressed Moon' is much longer and it shows the emotional shifts in your daily life.

To get a full picture of what is happening, you can combine the outcome of your Progressed Life Clock report with another method of forecasting known as Transits as used in the Future Forecast and Timeline Profile reports.

What is indicated under Life Clock progressions colors the long term, and what is being said under Transits describes how you may be experiencing everyday life whilst under that transits influence.

If your Life Clock Progressions indicate favorable periods, the Transits will indicate the ups and downs of that time, or if it's unfavorable they will indicate times of alleviation of that period or added stresses. These reports should be use as a guide only.

Each report spans an approximate two year period containing 7-10 pages

Best to produce 3 reports spanning 5-6 year period and include colored graph showing periods of activity and change.

Child Report

Written to provide an idea of the child's character, talents, needs and wants. With this knowledge, help and assistance can be provided which, can help point the child in the right direction.

Child Report is divided into a number of sections detailed below
You will find both the positive and negative qualities of the Child defined.
Contradictions will always appear in a person. They are what gives us our uniqueness.

The 'profile' is not cast in stone and can be influenced by positive support and direction. Where the profile indicates some difficulties, guidance, direction and boundaries will be important. This profile is suitable for any child from about sixteen months and up. This is when he or she will start manifesting the qualities described. The categories covered.

Section A - laying down the foundations

1. Essential character - the general trends and outstanding characteristics of the child's nature.
2. Emotional and feeling nature - the more passive and sensitive side of the child's nature and how it is likely to develop.
3. The relationship between the child and their mother.
4. Personality - the child's physical nature; and their general approach to the world; the way they see it; and the way they like to be seen.

Section B - from toddler to teenager - the process of development

1. Assertiveness - how the child makes their presence felt and if they are essentially active or passive.
2. Friendship and social attitudes - how the child will get on with others.
3. The power of the mind - the approach the child is likely to take towards the intellectual and academic side of life.
4. Money - how the child will handle the money.

Section C - preparing for independence

1. Higher education and establishing values - belief and educational framework that will sustain him through their adult life.
2. Approach to daily working life - What drive to succeed and how they will deal with the inevitable day-to-day necessities of work.
3. Career and ambitions - the business of how to make their mark on life, and what areas might be the most productive for them.

Pathfinder

A Pathfinder Reading

Personalized to the date, time and place of your birth; is based on the principle that you are happiest when you are doing what you want to do most.

The ancients believed that, at the moment of birth, as the soul journeys to the earth, it brings with it the influences of the planets which it passes on its way. This set of influences becomes the individual's map or horoscope. It becomes their internalized path.

Purposelessness - is perhaps the greatest dis-ease of our time. Without meaning life is empty. But what is the purpose and meaning of this life ?

Why are we here ?

We are here to walk our path, on the earth, beneath the sky. The inner sky becomes our path on earth.

Pathfinder Report asks the questions:

Who Am I? Which describes your being, your central core, your 'I' and your ways of declaring who you are.

Why Am I Here? Which looks at your purpose.

Where Do I Come From? Which deals with roots and ancestry, the foundations of your spiritual and psychological make-up. Your personal history.

Where Am I Going? Which portrays your direction in the world and your spiritual unfolding. The place where you ground your vision and your manner of increasing wisdom and evolution.

How Do I Get There? Is about your path. How you channel, filter and focus who you are. The place where you find your vision and identity; your separateness.

Who Are My Helpers? Considers friends, enemies and lovers; relationships and what you learn from them. How you die as an individual and are reborn as a child of the universe; losing your separateness and merging with the other-than-you.

What Will Heal Me? Describes how you heal yourself and others by becoming whole. Ultimately, it answers the question:

How can I find my integrity and live my life fully and effectively?

The answer is a marriage of the heaven and earth within.

Cosmic Mirror

A psychological profile detailing intellect, self awareness, and inner identity This interpretation is quite different from any other.

Consideration is taken of Hindu astrology rules, classical rules and more modern psychological interpretations of astrological rules. The sections of the Cosmic Mirror contain the following:

Strength of needs

"Striving"
"To own"
"Insight"
"Establishing roots"
"Self-realization"
"Perfectionism"
"Harmony"
"Seeing behind facade"
"Growth"
"Attaining competence"
"Renewal"
"To evade structure"

Special dimensions and transformation

Transformation is used in the sense that an energy or characteristic can be transmuted or changed to something else. In Tibetan Buddhism for example the high priests (Lamas) are depicted with a head covering on which small skulls are to be found, and on top of these there is a diamond or other precious jewel.

This symbolizes the idea that different mind poisons (e.g. hate, lust, confusion, egotism) have been transformed to positive qualities and insight. The point about this is that it is a question of a kind of recycling of energy. Such transformation processes are more common in some people than in others, and if this word is used in your horoscope, then you are more susceptible to this process than normal.

A transformation process can also be called a "death/rebirth experience", where that which must be transformed (most often habits, attitudes, attachments, ideas and opinions) DISAPPEAR for an interval, and the person in question (you) will feel confused. After some time, (1 to 2 years as a rule) new habits, attitudes, attachments etc are built up. A transformation process is in all probability one way that "the Universe" or Nature works on a person, and could be called "Nature's psychotherapy". AFTER a transformation, one (you) should be able to go new ways and develop in a new direction.

Relationships, marriage and projection in relationships

Projection is the term for the psychological phenomenon which destroys the ABILITY to SEE (not meet) the opposite sex as he or she truly is. Those qualities, which one does not wish to recognize in oneself, for better or for worse, can be sought in, lived through or reflected by another. Often this person will be someone who fascinates one so much, that one falls for him/ her.

This creates many problems when this "projected partner" is basically different from the ideal partner. Furthermore there is a tendency to meet people, who stand for that which one is seeking - in those cases when projection is present - in a distorted form.

Predispositions

It is difficult to explain predisposition's as indicated by the horoscope. In ancient Greece a good fortune or a positive fate was a blessing from the gods, and the person who dared to praise himself (because of luck or happiness) committed the sin of "hubris" and the wrath of the gods would be visited upon them. From the Buddhist point of view, Fate could be explained as a result of one's own actions in previous lives, but it was also emphasized that only a fully awakened Buddha is able to understand the complex pattern, within which karma originates, combines with other factors, and ripens. Within the terms of modern psychological theory it is more practical to suppose that only a smaller proportion of events in the life are directly due to fate or karma. The rest are logical consequences of our own psyche and the way we live and act. That is why we have attempted to describe these logical connections in these texts. Seen from another viewpoint this also corresponds to Eastern esoteric principles that "Life is a guru (teacher)". i.e. Some problems will arise repeatedly, until something or other is learned.

Soul Mates - Relationship Profile

Relationship Profile -the Chemistry Between You Both

This report defines the interactions between the Planets in one person's birth chart and the Planets in another person's.

The interpretations mainly focus upon sexual/romantic relationships, but friends, family and even business partnerships can also be looked at.

Key Contacts

These are usually the most powerful and dynamic points of interaction between you, but do not be put off if you find little or none, as other interactions will provide strong connections.

Key Contacts are listed as: First, Second and Third Impressions.

The report proceeds with:

Major Challenges and Strengths followed by Minor Challenges and Minor Strengths

The Golden Rules

When viewing a relationship report, it is important to bear in mind that there will be:

Inter-changeability - individuals will swap roles in relationships, due to psychological projection, gender roles, individual status and inclination, etc..

Double Whammies - when certain interactions are repeated, because that interaction goes both ways it affects the relationship very strongly.

"Birth Time Sensitive" interactions, means the interpretation will be correct only when the birth times are accurate to within fifteen minutes. Also, if a birth time is only to within several hours, then any interactions involving the Moon of that person should be regarded as possibly being unreliable.

The Chemistry Between You Both

No one interaction can make or break a relationship - In a healthy relationship, there is always a strength to deal with a stress or a strain, through time and love challenges if met, can always be overcome.

Soul Guide - Timeline Profile

As the planets move through the heavens on their orbits they form angular associations (Transits) with the positions they occupied when you were born. This report offers interpretations of their influence and apparent affects, together with the information and inspiration that will help you to understand their significance in your life, and to make the most of them.

Your Year or Month Guide

Represents how the planets, as they move, are influencing the planets and points in your Birth Chart and shows Key phrases and Theme, along with the Possible encounters.

Repeating waves of influence appear as repeated paragraphs in the interpretations, this is natural and will occur over time. Timing - influences can be felt for some days or even months before or after the given dates.

General ways of making good use of your Year or Month Guides

Quite apart from the actual Radix Planet(s) being transited at any given time, a predominant influence upon your life by a particular transiting Planet may be interpreted accordingly:

Pluto Transits - These are, or should be, life changing in a profound way.

Neptune Transits - These are, or should be, life-changing in a subtle way.

Uranus Transits - These are, or should be, life changing in an unexpected way.

Saturn Transits - These are life stabilizing or life-testing in some way. Jupiter

Transits - These are life-expanding or life-overdoing in some way.

Month Guides Only:

Mars Transits - These are highly significant, they fire you up for good or ill.

Venus Transits - These are mild and usually pleasant, creating harmony and ease.

Mercury transits - Can cause you to feel mentally sharper or more on edge.

b - These 'high-light' the quality of the planet that is being transited.

Psychological Protection

Last but by no means least, you need at all times to be aware of the possibility as this is probably the most commonly confusing trait of human nature, for it is our inclination to live out unconsciously parts of ourselves through others - because we cannot accept them as coming from ourselves, as they seem either too bad or too good to be true.

So in this way, any Transit can manifest its influences in the life, character, dilemma, or creative expression of one person or many people apparently distinct from yourself - but not really. Introjection, or the taking back of one's projections is the major key to both self-awareness and the future of Humanity. So watch and wonder, perceive and ponder -and admit it.

Soul Scope- Personal Profile

Details the 'astrological positions' of your horoscope, followed by the interpretations, set out in sections - describing what they mean in your life.

Chapter One - Your Ascendant: Appearance and Persona

Chapter Two - Your Sun profile: Your Will and Purpose

Chapter Three - Your Moon Profile: Your Needs and Emotional Responses

Chapter Four - Your Midheaven profile: Career and Status

Chapter Nine - Your Saturn Profile: Lessons and Responsibilities

Chapter Ten - Your Uranus Profile: Awakening and Freedom

Chapter Eleven - Your Neptune Profile: Sensitivity and Spirituality

Chapter Twelve - Your Pluto Profile: Power and Transformation

A purpose to your life

From reading your Personal Profile, you may know that already, and this has confirmed it, or made you look at it differently. You may also have noticed that not only is there a purpose to your life as a whole, there is a purpose to every part of your life as well.

Furthermore, for every purpose of yours, you may see that you have positive traits and abilities to achieve it. Any negative traits are only the result of your having diverged from, or being unconscious of, that purpose.

And the relationships and circumstances of your life have been attracted entirely by these positive and negative qualities - like the poles of a magnet. For it is a scientific fact that is what a human or any other being actually is: an electromagnetic being - picking up good and bad vibrations.

Astrology is based upon electro-magnetism and vibratory resonance

The author hopes that through this "Report" you will have gained, and will continue to gain, a sense of satisfaction and control through being more and more familiar with the power and purpose of your life and personality.
