PSYCHOLOGICAL PROFILE

Air element strong:*

You are very active intellectually, but you have a tendency to over-intellectualise, in which case too much goes on in your head. Instead you should act, or work with and show your feelings. Your intellect tends to make you introverted, or makes you seem rather abstract. You should bear in mind that not all problems can be solved intellectually. Nevertheless you relate easily to others, you are curious, and the structure and events in this world interest you. It is very probable that you can be creative or ingenious.

Eastern hemisphere emphasis:*

It is important for you to EXPRESS your identity to others. You will consciously use a great deal of energy and willpower to express personal interests and ambitions. You are free (from the karmic point of view) to pursue your own goals in life. Before the age of 30 you will think a lot about yourself and will have difficulty understanding and adjusting to other people's needs. This will naturally create some problems in relations with others.

Gemini or the third house especially strong:*

You have a well-developed analytical talent, and the ability to write or express yourself verbally, and through mimic, music or song. You are versatile, being able to turn your hand to many things, and having many interests. The characteristics described here are very strongly developed.

Leo or the 5th house especially strong:*

You have a well-developed talent for business, speculation and perhaps organisation. You have an unusually strong drive to realise all your abilities and possibilities. You have leadership ability and punch notwithstanding however else you project yourself. The characteristics just described are very strongly developed.

Uranus and Venus strong, and water element below average:*

You are aesthetic, with a certain vanity, and are creative with some original abilities. Your taste has a strong personal tinge. You possess a great need to have a fling socially, and you like to know many people. You are attractive in a special way, but not particularly romantic. You have good creative abilities. You are independent and unattached.

Uranus and Venus strong, with Uranus harmoniously aspected by the inner planets:*

You have a very unconventional charm. You are attractive and aesthetic. You like to be together with many people and to hold parties. You are bored by the trivial and have a great sense for the humanistic and artistic. Tolerant and unprejudiced, other people notice that you accept them and recognise them for what they are, and this has the general result that you are well liked. You have a good appreciation of political, social and cultural problems and their causes.

POSITIVE CHARACTERISTICS:

The horoscope shows some MARKED positive characteristics, and these are:

Uranus strong and predominantly harmoniously aspected:*

- you are inventive, original, intuitive, have strong abilities. You are not at all snobbish and are independent. You are well liked because you accept others without prejudice. With your creative perception you see the possibilities in your own and other people's surroundings, and you know how to make them manifest.

Libra the strongest positively aspected sign:*

You love harmony and justice and have the ability to make objective judgements. You are good at comparison; you have strong senses. When things go against you have a rare ability to accept fate. You try to establish balance in your surroundings. You like dance, song or music. You can act very diplomatically, you are correct and good at selling ideas or goods.

INTELLECT

Air strong, and Mercury in disharmonious aspect to Pluto or un-aspected in Scorpio:*

You are a very intellectual and mentally organised type, and you are well suited to work with analysis, logic or psychologically oriented subjects (i.e. where considerable psychological knowledge is required). You are the type of person who can work for 14 hours a day if it is simply your intellect that has to do the work, and when concentration and self-discipline are required. One weakness is that you miss the signs that tell you that now you must rest and take time off, and therefore you can become mentally exhausted. You are extremely stubborn in your thinking, and you are DETERMINED to understand something. This is of course OK up to a point, but from the negative point of view you can brood too much and your brain never disengages. Even in emotional situations where you ought to be emotionally impulsive, your brain is still going. Therefore you can over intellectualise and you often handle things far too mentally. You have a strong need to break down and dissect issues that other people consider taboo, and you are quite willing to wander out into unknown mental fields. You have the "researcher's" temperament, but also a brooding mind. You should try to transform this latter so that you can utilise the capacity and potential of your mind fully. You are the theoretician who has a theory about almost everything, and you can be fixated in your opinions and not really as flexible as you might think you are.

SELF-AWARENESS / SELF-CONFIDENCE

The Moon neither especially positively nor especially negatively aspected; or positively aspected but weak:*

Your feelings about yourself are rather normal and average.

The Moon neither especially positive nor especially negatively aspected, or positively aspected but weak, and with one or more sextile or trine aspects:*

Anyway you gain self-confidence and feel good about:

Moon in harmonious aspect to Uranus:*

- expressing your original sides and (thereby) creatively influencing your surroundings.

The Moon neither especially positively nor especially negatively aspected, or positively aspected but weak, and with one or more squares or oppositions:*

Despite reasonably normal feelings about yourself you show some uncertainty about:

Moon in disharmonious aspect to the Sun:*

- expressing your identity, and (thereby) daring to be completely yourself.

The person a man of at least 36 years of age:*

INNER IDENTITY:

(The grown-up identity).

The following is a description of character traits in you as you ARE now, but these characteristics will become further accentuated with age, i.e. more noticeable, and this will continue up to the age of about 60, when you can expect them to fade somewhat. However this depends on many factors, amongst other things whether you continue to work, whether you are motivated to enjoy life more...etc. If you change your life in this way there is a likelihood that the greatest psychological changes will happen after the age of 60.

Sun in Cancer and the person at least 36:*

You have developed into being more attached to the home and to tradition. You have become more emotionally open with age.

Sun in aspect to Jupiter:*

Furthermore you will develop and inner optimism and expansiveness, and an ability to see and work with creativity in others.

Sun in 12th house:*

Furthermore you will become more involved in spiritual/artistic subjects after 28-35 years of age.

Saturn in the same house as the Sun:*

You are very ambitious and attached to the aforementioned area, and therefore very serious about this.

Sun in reasonably strong disharmonious aspect to ruler of 5th house:*

However a conflict can be traced between the two aforementioned areas, which can give you difficulties in making a choice between them. If this is so, then it is advisable to make a synthesis or equal priority between them.

STRENGTH OF NEEDS

Leo strongest sign:*

You generally have a strong need to express yourself in a loyal, vitalising, powerful and lively way (with the purpose of getting recognition AND creating life around you).

Furthermore we have measured the strengths of a series of needs. By this is meant that it is not your abilities which are being measured, but primarily the way you give priority to the needs in question. They should be seen in relation to each other.

NEED	WEAK	MEDIUM	STRONG
Striving	*****
To own	*****
Insight	*****
Establishing roots	*****
Self-realisation	*****
Perfectionism	*****
Harmony	*****
Seeing behind facade	*****
Growth	*****
Attaining competence	**
Renewal	*****
To evade structure	****

As you can see you have ONE need which is really strong. This means partly that you feel an inner compulsion to work with this need, but also that you can use too much energy and attention on this need, so that you risk becoming one-track minded. It is quite up to you to find a reasonable balance so that the fulfilment of this need does not affect your other needs (which you can come to give too low a priority to with time).

As you can see you have some needs which are very low. This can easily mean that you can end up with some problems because you give too low a priority here.

OTHER IMPORTANT FACTORS

Uranus strong in the horoscope:*

You experience, you have experienced or you will come to experience SUDDEN changes, especially (but not always) within one special area of life. The reason for this is not easy to explain, and may simply be a question of fate. The explanation could however also be that you gradually build up an inner compulsion in this area - an inner need to be FREE. And this happens then after a growing feeling of being trapped and limited.

Strong Uranus in the 11th house:*

With you this happens in connection with political, social or society interests, i.e. you suddenly seek freedom to express yourself in these matters.

Saturn without notable aspects and neither water or earth strongly dominant:*

One special thing about you is that you have considerable freedom, at least in the first part of your life. You have the freedom to establish yourself as you wish, and therefore it is rather unlikely that you will be married before the age of 28, and if you do you are not so happy about shouldering the great responsibility involved. You are not forced in any particular direction in life. You have to find and create this yourself, and therefore it is likely that you have to be at least 30 years of age before you find your place in life.

In one special area in life you have to make a great effort to get things to function smoothly, and this is as follows:

Saturn in the 12th house and strong or without notable aspects:*

You have to learn to work at building up trust in life itself, as well as trust in feelings.

RELATIONSHIPS:

The ideal partner for you, measured as the sum of many factors in the horoscope, is shown schematically below through the strengths of a number of qualities:

QUALITY	WEAK	MEDIUM	STRONG
Motherly	***
Chic	****
Intellectual	*****
With initiative	*****
Emotional	****
Stable	*****
Strong will	***
Extrovert	*****
Independent	*****
Structured	*****

This describes your type of partner, measured in terms of Jung's concept that a man falls for a woman equivalent to his inner woman (anima), and a woman for a man who is equivalent to her inner man (animus). An ideal partner means that you both like and can get on with the woman who has the above characteristics. HOWEVER: psychologically this "ideal partner " will undergo transformation as you change. Your desires can therefore vary considerably throughout your life. The above graph reflects the situation around the age of 30. In fact all the data in this horoscope UNLESS otherwise specified applies to you mostly between the ages of 28 - 42. This picture can change somewhat dependant on how you work with yourself, but this can never be measured astrologically. Only inclinations can be specified. However, if you do not work with yourself, then this picture will be relevant throughout your whole life.

No planet in the 7th house and at the very most weak oppositions to Sun, Moon or Mars:*

We have assessed your projections as being very few, but you have difficulty in 1) Getting qualified feed-back from others and 2) becoming conscious yourself of how you affect others. You must therefore ask others for this feedback, or work constructively on this problem in another way.

Venus in Leo:*

You are open with your feelings. If you have a surplus you EXPRESS your feelings and needs clearly. You are a loyal and faithful type, but you want to be respected by your partner - even seen up to a bit. If this does not happen a latent pride arises and your feelings are rapidly sealed off.

Man with Venus in Leo:*

You are quite keen to make the object of your love into "royalty", so that she is a testimony to your own worth and what you are capable of. A woman who can carry things off in public. For you a partner is not just a woman in her own right, she is also a reflection and extension of your own ego.

Man with Mars in Virgo:*

Your masculine self-worth is not high. And it is very connected to whether you can manage to appear analytical, intelligent and effective.

Mars not very strong in Taurus, Scorpio or Capricorn, Venus and Mars not both in earth signs, Mars not in Leo with Venus simultaneously in Taurus, Scorpio or Capricorn, and Mars not in reasonably strong aspect to Uranus or Pluto, and Mars not strong with Venus simultaneously in an earth or water sign:*

Your need for tenderness and love is more important for you than sexual contact, no matter how strong it is.

MARRIAGE:

In the previous section a number of factors are mentioned which influence your feelings and attitudes as well as your reactions in love. These lead of course to a marriage or relationship with the same status. We use the term "marriage" in the following text. There follows here some additional information. You should bear in mind that your partner will have a series of characteristics close to what has been described in the "Ideal partner" (see earlier).

Aquarius on the 7th house and Venus not predominantly harmoniously aspected:*

A number of your hopes and wishes are connected to being married, as well as certain ambitions about getting in to a definite and rather special environment through your marriage. It is however not so easy for you to find the right person, and you can expect some difficulties BEFORE this happens. But then the marriage will function, albeit under rather untraditional conditions. You will have a partner who is not like most.

7th house ruler in 11th house:*

There is some probability that you will MEET your marriage partner through a friend, or in some union or group with a political, idealistic or humanitarian purpose.

7th house ruler in 10th or 11th house and predominantly harmonious:*

Your partner manages better than you socially and as regards status.

PREDISPOSITIONS

The following judgements about both positive and negative predisposition's for the individual houses are the result of a combination of calculations based on a number of classical rules.*

This judgement has also been influenced by Eastern traditions based on the law of karma and Hindu astrology, plus the more "fated" judgements from old Western astrological tradition.

Good prospects through one house being especially favourable:*

Compared to the average member of society (based on a statistical analysis of many horoscopes) you have one or more strongly emphasised areas where you can expect good fortune. These are:

Favourable 7th house:*

You have good fortune as regards marriage and in finding a partner who is something special for you. Similarly should you become involved in court cases you will be lucky. Foreign climes bring good fortune, and if you settle abroad you will also be lucky.

As it would seem that almost all people have troubles in there relationships these days, it is probable, but not necessary that you have to come over the age 28-35 to experience the favourable conditions here - the computer has not interpreted your horoscope wrongly, it is rather that the culture you live in has just as profound an influence on your fate as your own predisposition's according to your chart.

Favourable 8th house:*

You have good fortune as regards your length of life and your ability to survive in various situations. You are lucky with money, inheritance, grants and in general with benefiting from others' resources (see later possibly).

Favourable 11th house:*

You have good fortune in finding true friends. Furthermore you are lucky in that fortune smiles on you by fulfilling many of your wishes. A lucky gambler.

More than two houses favourable:*

There are several areas of life where you are predisposed to good fortune, and where you function especially well.

7th house ruler in one of the houses 5,7,9,10,11 and fortunate fate for both houses:*

Your marriage partner has success through his or her career and its particular field, and attains through this a GOOD position or status.

POSTSCRIPT

We hope that you have managed to get something out of reading your horoscope, and that you have found it interesting. That you have become wiser in an exciting way. Cosmic Mirror is however not responsible for how you use the information in this horoscope.

WORD LIST

TRANSFORMATION

This word is used in the sense that an energy or characteristic can be transmuted or changed to something else. In Tibetan Buddhism for example the high priests (Lamas) are depicted with a head covering on which small skulls are to be found, and on top of these there is a diamond or other precious jewel. This symbolises the idea that different mind poisons (e.g. hate, lust, confusion, egotism) have been transformed to positive qualities and insight. The point about this is that it is a question of a kind of recycling of energy. Such transformation processes are more common in some people than in others, and if this word is used in your horoscope, then you are more susceptible to this process than normal.

Astrologically it is Pluto in particular that is connected to these transformations. A transformation process can also be called a "death/rebirth experience", where that which must be transformed (most often habits, attitudes, attachments, ideas and opinions) DISAPPEARS for an interval, and the person in question (you) will feel confused. After some time, (1 to 2 years as a rule) new habits, attitudes, attachments etc are built up. A transformation process is in all probability one way that "the Universe" or Nature works on a person, and could be called "Nature's psychotherapy". AFTER a transformation, one (you) should be able to go new ways and develop in a new direction.

NEEDS

The code words given in the "Needs" graph should be understood in the following way:

"Striving" A direct extroverted drive, purely masculine.

"To own" The need for money and material things.

"Insight" Need for all-round knowledge, not specialist.

"Establishing roots" The need for security, a life basis and a stable home.

"Self-realisation" A kind of ambition, namely the need to show the world who one is and what one can do.

"Perfectionism" The need to attain skills through careful and methodical effort.

"Harmony" The need to be in harmony with one's surroundings.

"Seeing behind facade" The need to reveal truths about oneself, others and Life.

"Growth" Either the need for philosophical growth (perspective) or more material/business growth.

"Attaining competence" The need to attain status, but with the main emphasis on competence.

"Renewal" The need for variety, new paths and interests throughout life.

"To evade structure" The need to periodically escape from responsibility, duties etc.

This can lead to interests in music nature, meditation or something where one forgets self.

PROJECTION IN RELATIONSHIPS

Projection is the term for the psychological phenomenon which destroys the ABILITY to SEE (not meet) the opposite sex as he or she truly is. Those qualities, which one does not wish to recognise in oneself, for better or for worse, can be sought in, lived through or reflected by another. Often this person will be someone who fascinates one so much, that one falls for him/her. This creates many problems when this "projected partner" is basically different from the ideal partner. Furthermore there is a tendency to meet people, who stand for that which one is seeking - in those cases when projection is present - in a distorted form.

PREDISPOSITIONS

It is difficult to explain predisposition's as indicated by the horoscope. They correspond to the older idea of Fate. The authors have not wish to attempt to explain this phenomenon. However it must be mentioned that the Christian church and its theologians have been very involved with this question, but the closest one seems to get is that "the ways of the Lord are unknowable", i.e. that the explanation is so complex that only God and certainly not Man can give the answer. In ancient Greece a good fortune or a positive fate was a blessing from the gods, and the person who dared to praise himself (because of luck or happiness) committed the sin of "hubris" and the wrath of the gods would be visited upon them. From the Buddhist point of view, Fate could be explained as a result of one's own actions in previous lives, but it was also emphasised that only a fully awakened Buddha is able to understand the complex pattern, within which karma originates, combines with other factors, and ripens.

Within the terms of modern psychological theory it is more practical to suppose that only a smaller proportion of events in the life are directly due to fate or karma. The rest are logical consequences of our own psyche and the way we live and act. That is why we have attempted to describe these logical connections in these texts. Seen from another viewpoint this also corresponds to Eastern esoteric principles that "Life is a guru (teacher)". i.e. Some problems will arise repeatedly, until something or other is learned.

ABOUT THE PROGRAM COSMIC MIRROR

The interpretation program is quite different from any other. Cosmic Mirror has an interpretation made as a professional astrologer would do it. The horoscope that is written out is a synthesis, i.e. all factors in the horoscope (like planets, their sign position, aspects, house positions etc) are analysed and sorted as a whole BEFORE the text is written out.

In the interpretation, consideration is taken of Hindu astrology rules, classical rules and more modern psychological interpretations of astrological rules.
